Best Dressed Beauty

Want a flawless look with every hair in place? JEZ scoops beauty secrets from co-owner of Sunny's Hair & Wigs, Dafina Nya Memberr.

NAME: Dafina Nya Memberr

OCCUPATION: Co-owner of Sunny's Hair & Wigs

LOCATION: Sunny's Hair & Wigs

Curly, strait, wavy, bobs and bangs. For Dafina Nya Memberr, co-owner of Sunny's Hair & Wigs in Buckhead, it's all about hair—an integral part of the whole package. With everyone from blonde screen goddesses to R&B megastars modeling hair extensions with the same glamour and frequency as the latest Chanel handbag, hair is a vital, well, extension of modern-day accessorizing. Because Memberr knows firsthand that what's on the head frames the face, she takes impeccable care of her own skin, which glistens with enviable, flawless radiance. Beautifully advocating the company motto—"Change your hair, change your life"—this sexy lady always re-invents her look, which she complements with flawless makeup applications and a refreshing skincare regimen. Memberr likens beauty maintenance to "pressing the pause button," and says that it is a lot about self-preservation—taking time to nurture yourself. "I love that extra kick in my step I have when I feel good and look good," says Memberr, who dishes savvy and beauty know-how to her customers on a daily basis. With clued-in command of products and pampering, and that certain "it" factor, it's no wonder that so many Atlantan women flock to Sunny's for her advice. Never immune to receiving beauty tips, JEZ stepped inside Memberr's lounge-like boutique for a few of her one-on-one top beauty secrets. —TOVA GELFOND
