Get Your Wig Split

Sunny's Hair & Wigs

Your mission, should you choose to accept it:

Subvert and jazz up your ho-hum bar-hopping-in-a-cute-top routine.

Rendezvous at Sunny's Hair & Wigs for further protocol and instruction.

Note mannequins modeling fierce precision cuts. Owner Dafina Memberr collaborates with coif trendsetters like Derek J. to style mercilessly sharp blunt cuts, asymmetrical bobs, and falls.

Hide out in semiprivate booths or the private Audrey Hepburn-inspired girly consult suite. Perch in black leather pedestal chair to make final arrangements.

And no matter what, if you're told that your mug isn't meant for a wig (Memberr says some just aren't) shut your trap and listen.

Groucho Marxist manners of disguise are not among your options.
